

Minutes of the seminar „10 years of help and support – we are there for you!“

Project: BADEV

Type of event: Seminar

When: 31.05.2019

Location: Ministries' Building, Suur-Ameerika 1, Tallinn

Goal: To introduce Barnahus, Child helpline and supporting services to provide better care for abused children in Tallinn and Harju county

Participants: all local organisations and representatives of municipalities working directly with children

Number of participants: 56

Language: Estonian

Media coverage: press-release, newspaper articles and radio interview.

The aim of the seminar is to improve the knowledge of specialists working with children about noticing a child in need and about the possibilities to improve his / her situation as a result of successful networking. The presentations provide participants with practical tips for daily work with children and families.

We have a total of 5 longer presentations during the day, also different forms of work like living library.

Presentations:

Feel free to ask for help! We are there for you! Cooperation of Barnahus and Child Helpline - Mari-Liis Mänd, Head of the Child Helpline 116111 Service Department of the Child Protection Department of the Social Insurance Board

A child-friendly and child-caring school. - Kristi Raava, psychologist of Tallinn 32nd Secondary School

Living Library - How Can I Help? Let's talk about childcare cases with the help of experience stories. What does the orphanage do? How can child protection help? What are good examples of school?

Children's mental well-being and health - Kristiina Koorits, Social Worker, Department of Children and Adolescents, Psychiatric Clinic, Regional Hospital

A child in need of help. How to notice and help? - Margit Sarv, Senior Adviser, Department of Children and Youth Rights, Office of the Chancellor of Justice

This project has received funding from the European Union's Rights, Equality and Citizenship Programme (2014-2020) under grant agreement 764255 BADEV